day could have been chosen to open the picnic season, which our young people so much enjoy. Quite a number of our young ladies and gentlemen, chaperoned by Mrs.

Conant. Mrs. Couper and Mrs. Williams, went yesterday to Interlachen to enjoy the first regular outing which we have had the opportunity to chronice. It was specially given in honor of the Misses King, of Brunswick, Ga., and Miss Carey, of Montgomery, Ala., who are now the guests of Major W. P. Couper, and the success of the affair was mainly due to the indefatigable efforts and charming manners of Mrs. Conant, assisted by the other chaperones. who were not far behind in the opinion of the young people, who were so eager

A Doctor's Experience.

After a great many trials of the first physicians in the North and South, I had grown exhausted by the continued experimental efforts of doctors to cure me of Chronic Laryngetis and Bronchitis of most severe type, I dropped into a drugstore while more dead than alive. Speaking of my condition, a friend advised me to try Dr. Mozley's Lemon Hot Drops, which I did, and to my surprise after taking the first bottle, it gave me complete relief. I then bought three other bottles, which cured my case en tirely of eight year's standing. I favor you with this to encourage you to make

Boston has a new fashion in bookbinding; the colors of the volumes in large sets are varied. One of the leading binders has just finished a set of Dickens for a private library in sixteen different colrs. "Each novel," says Arlo Bates, was bound in an individual hue, the only duplication occurring where a tale came in two volumes. Red, brown, orange, light and dark blue, lemon, fawn, maroon, brown and black were among the tints chosen, and with each went a harmonious gold line English paper. The effect of this fashion is very pretty, and even beilliant. It is used to break the uniformity of a score of vol-
